Summary of meetings held on Wednesday, 1 April 2009

Committee of the Whole

The Committee of the Whole reconvened at 3 p.m. chaired by Mr. Franz B. Marré, Head of Department of the German Federal Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development, and vice-president of the twenty-second session of the Governing Council, to consider draft resolutions submitted by member States. After clarifications had been provided and a general debate conducted on the six resolutions, the Committee agreed to forward them to the drafting committee for its further consideration. It adjourned at 4.10 p.m. and will reconvene as earlier scheduled, today, at 9.30 a.m. in conference room 2.

Drafting committee

The drafting committee met in the morning in an informal session and in a formal session in the afternoon.

It formally approved draft resolutions “Proposed work programme and budget of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme for 2010–2011” (HSP/GC/22/CRP.7); “World Urban Forum” (HSP/GC/22/CRP.10); “South-South cooperation in human settlements” (HSP/GC/22/CRP.9); “Third session of the United Nations conference on housing and sustainable urban development” (HSP/GC/22/CRP.1/Rev.1); and “Habitat Awards” (HSP/GC/22/CRP.6/Rev.1).

Resolutions “Guidelines on access to basic services for all” (HSP/GC/22/L.3); and “Governance of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme” (HSP/GC/22/CRP.5) were referred to informal contact groups.

Dialogue

A dialogue on promoting affordable housing finance systems in an urbanizing world in the face of the global financial crisis and climate change was held in conference room 2. It was chaired by the President of the Governing Council, Mr. Clifford Warmington, Minister for Water and Housing, Jamaica. It was moderated by Ms. Irene Vance, a financial consultant. In each of the two sessions, seven panellists provided inputs from the perspective of governments, local authorities and Habitat Agenda partners.

The morning session of the dialogue centered on the topic of affordable housing finance in the context of the current global economic crisis. Panellists covered a wide range of issues and the dialogue was characterized by a lively discussion comprising many statements that highlighted the key implications of the crisis on developing countries and potential responses to the crisis by international organizations, national Governments and Habitat Agenda partners such as domestic banks, microfinance institutions and community groups. Presentations were made by Mr. Dan Ericsson, State Secretary to the Minister for Local Government and Financial Markets of Sweden; Mr. Joko Widodo, mayor of the city of Solo, Indonesia; Mr. Muchadeyi Ashton Masunda, mayor of the City of Harare, and Mr. Peter Makau from the Equity Bank in Kenya.
During the discussion that followed, questions and comments were made by Burkina Faso, Republic of Korea, Central African Republic, Namibia, Israel and Brazil. More presentations were then made by Mr. Relu Fenechiu, member of parliament from Romania, Ms. Ayanthi Gurusinghe, from the Slum Upgrading Facility in Sri Lanka, and Ms. Kechia Rust from Finmark Trust in South Africa. A discussion then followed with statements and questions from Japan, the Czech Republic, Nepal, Jinja Women's Group of Uganda, Slum Dweller's International, Botswana, Sri Lanka and Norway.

The afternoon session focused on the challenges and opportunities for financing affordable housing and infrastructure arising from climate change. It was moderated by Ms. Christine Platt, from the Commonwealth Association of Planners. Mr. Andrew Githeko from the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) introduced the challenges for cities in the field of housing and infrastructure arising from climate change. As part of the panel, presentations were made by Mr. Mohamed Yusuf Pashtun, Minister of Urban Development, Afghanistan; Mr. Adam Kimbisa, mayor of Dar es Salaam and Mr. Jorge Bittar, Rio de Janeiro Housing Secretary. During the discussion that followed, questions and remarks were made by the Huairou Commission, Norway, Association of Planners, India, and Botswana. Further presentations were made on the panel by Mr. Jimnah Mbaru, First National Vice-Chair of the Kenya National Chamber of Commerce and Industry; Ms. Louise Cox, President of the International Union of Architects, and Ms. Maria Valencia from Colombia, nominated by the Youth Advisory Committee. In the lively debate that followed, remarks were made by a number of participants.

Parallel events

The Global Land Tool Network (GLTN) gender evaluation criteria for assessing the gender-sensitivity of land tools were launched at this side event with over 65 participants, chaired by Ms. Tubwita Grace Bagaya, a member of parliament from Uganda. After opening remarks by Mr. Nick You of UN-Habitat and an overview of the criteria by the GLTN secretariat, reflections were presented by the Huairou Commission, International Federation of Surveyors, and University of East London as GLTN partners in developing the criteria. The civil society organizations Espacio Feminista of Brazil and LUMANI Support Group for Shelter, Nepal, then described how they intended to pilot the criteria in their respective countries as part of the land policy formulation in Nepal and in the application of an urban policy statute in Brazil. Considerable interest was displayed in the criteria as a tool to advance gender inequality in the land sector, with requests for the tool to be tested and adapted to the contexts of several other countries, including Burundi, India and Kenya, and in the Africa land policy guidelines process.

Some 50 delegates attended a briefing and registered for free access to environmental research through the On-line Access to Research on the Environment initiative. Under the OARE initiative, access is given to the latest research at low or no cost to developing countries by 130 publishers. The research is made available through an on-line library of more than 7,500 peer-reviewed scientific journals, books and databases.

A guide on urban safety and security was presented in the afternoon. It developed by the UN-Habitat Safer Cities Programme and Alberto Hurtado University in Santiago, Chile, as part of the implementation of the Safer Cities Strategy for Latin America.

Civil society organizations discussed draft resolutions of the twenty-second Governing Council. They agreed to ask Governments to support the resolutions.

Global Parliamentarians on Habitat held a day-long meeting on strengthening their group and making it more active in promoting the housing and human settlements agenda. Ms. Tibaijuka invited them to the fifth session of the World Urban Forum in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in March 2010. They elected the following members to the Board of Directors of the African Parliamentarians Forum.
